

CONDITIONS OF BOOKING AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. The Company hereby indicate that they disclaim all responsibility and liability for any inconvenience caused through circumstances beyond their control but they will at all times do everything possible for the comfort and convenience of passengers.

2. The tickets for the tours published are issued as a receipt for the amount of fare shown on the face thereof, and the acceptance by the passenger of the tickets issued, either by the Company or any of their Agents, shall be held to constitute a contract between the passenger and the Company, subject to the following Conditions and other published conditions set out in the timetables and notices of the Company and/or the Owner(s) of the vehicles upon which the passenger may travel.

(a) The Company disclaim all responsibility and liability for any loss, damage, delay, detention, injury, whether direct or indirect, however the same shall be caused. The Company will make every effort to maintain the services, but reserve the right as they shall consider necessary to alter, suspend, or withdraw same without notice. In the event of any passenger not being carried through any cause whatsoever, no liability will be accepted by the Company. The Company give notice that they do not undertake that their vehicles shall start from or arrive at the time shown in the timetable against any particular stage or point.

(b) Personal luggage, where permitted, must be properly labelled and is carried entirely at passengers' own risk. The Company will not be liable for loss or damage to same, however caused. The Company reserve the right to refuse to convey excess or unsuitable luggage. Bulky luggage such as cabin trunks, perambulators, etc., must be sent in advance.

(c) Tickets are not transferable. All tickets with the exception of Hotel tickets must be handed to the driver or conductor and produced for examination by an Inspector or other Official of the Company upon request. Hotel tickets must be handed to the hotel proprietor.

(d) The receipt of a deposit (which must be 10 per cent. of the total fare quoted) on any booking does not imply acceptance of such booking, and in the event of the Company being unable to accept any booking, notification will be sent, and the deposit refunded.

(e) No cancellation of bookings can be made once accommodation has been reserved, unless ample notice of cancellation is given, when the Company will make every endeavour to refund as much of the fare as possible. The amount of any such refund and the making of the same shall be matters to be decided entirely by and at the discretion of the Company.

(f) The Company reserve the right to vary, with or without notice, any of the tours set out in the published programme.

(g) All tickets issued for the travel portions of the Itinerary set out in the Company's published programme are issued subject to the published conditions and regulations of the Company whose vehicle executes that part of the journey, and no claim can be accepted by the Company for detention, delay, loss or injury occasioned in connection with any service provided by other Companies or persons.

3. Bookings should be made well in advance in order that the necessary reservations may be made.

4. The charge set out in the Company's published programme includes travel to and from the particular resort, dinner upon arrival, lodging for the period stated, breakfast on the day of departure.

5. Reduced fares for children will be quoted, according to age, upon application to the Company.
